Published Works

2021
DEATH OF A LOVED ONE IN THE TIME OF PANDEMIC

- A book about the journey through grief, pain, isolation, fear, and optimism in these crazy times and how this pandemic robbed all of us (people who lost a loved one during this worldwide phenomenon) of the capacity to give the proper burial for their loved ones and how writing has been his outlet to heal.

2022
WHITE MOCHA AMERICANO

- A novel about a love story that gradually blossoms from random chances, wanderlust, traditions, harmony, and a series of serendipities between a coffee lover, who loves the idea of being in love, and an enigmatic regular patron of Kapa-Kapa Cafe. Kapa-Kapa Cafe houses several love stories one of which is detailed in the first BL novel written by Anthony Shieh.

2023
VERGE

- A collection of poetry that delves into the realms of pensive and reflective experiences in life, capturing the essence of what it means to exist on the Verge.
